The Ted Cruz Victory Committee ("Victory") is a joint fundraising committee established by the following committees: Jobs, Freedom, and Security PAC and Ted Cruz for Senate. Victory will allocate all receipts according to the following formula ("Allocation Formula"): (i) the first $3,300 of any contribution by an individual or non-multicandidate federal PAC, or the next $5,000 of any contribution by a multicandidate federal PAC, will be allocated to Ted Cruz for Senate's 2024 primary election account; (ii) the next $3,300 of any contribution by an individual or non-multicandidate federal PAC, or the next $5,000 of any contribution by a multicandidate federal PAC, will be allocated to Ted Cruz for Senate's 2024 general election account; (iii) the next $5,000 of any contribution by an individual or non-multicandidate federal PAC, or the next $5,000 of any contribution by a multicandidate federal PAC, will be allocated to Jobs, Freedom, and Security PAC; Notwithstanding the default Allocation Formula: (i) any donor may designate their contribution to a specific participating committee pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 102.17(c); (ii) if any portion of a contribution causes a contributor to exceed the contribution limit to one or more of the participating committees, then that portion of the contribution will be reallocated to the other participating committees to the fullest extent allowed by law; and (iii) if any portion of a contribution causes a contributor to exceed the contribution limit to all participating committees, or the contribution is not otherwise legally permissible, then that portion of the contribution will be refunded to the contributor. Contributions are subject to the amount limits and source restrictions under federal law. The legal maximum that an individual or non-multicandidate federal PAC may contribute to Victory in 2023 is $11,600, whereas a federal multicandidate PAC may contribute $15,000.
